Editors Louisville Journal: GENTLEMEN: I am to-day a healthy and happy man by the ecentific skill of Dit. WM. PHICE, of your the most dreadful of all maladies. For a long line then years I have been reflected with the effects of Chanten or self-ahme, and, having falled to get relief from celebrated physicians, twa advised to apply to DB. PRICE, which, thank Beaven, I did, experiencing from his treatment the most perfect relief.

I make this communication from the most benevalent of motives, boping that all that are similarly affected will find relief as I did. And if the physicians who treated my case tell the truth, there me many in this most dreadful of all conditions.

So much is renerally known. But considerable attention has been lately directed to Chinese matters, by reason of the increase of trade, the diplomatic eperations, the Anglo-French expedition, and the report aent home by missionaries. Very recently the near approach of the "Talpings" to Shanghat, has afforded an opportunity to visit their camp at Soochow, which has been doors, among others, by the Rev. Mr. Edkins. He was kindly received by the Chief, Chung Wang, or "Faithful King," and has published a long eccount of the interview and what he saw. Unhurled and putrifying heaps of human hodies indicated either resistance, or cruelty, and certainly proved a great disregard of decency and cleanlinese. Barbarie splendor in equipment and ceremoniel was much observed. The interview with the Chief, which was lengthy, was commenced by asking their object. We give a paragraph:

Answer. Faithful king, may you live a thousand years. We come from Shanghal and halong to the great English nation. We have been darked in the water of life freely."

These fountains and Temperance.—The metry political for the political for the operation, the strong much for temperance. An association has been fermed, I believe, through the spenyed and that distinguished nobleman, Lord Shaftesbury, is now at the head of this, as, Indeed, of almost every benevolent effort to benefit the poor. It has offen been exceedingly difficult for the poor and liboring classes I oblinin a drink of pure wutor, and multitudes have thus been compelled to go to the public houses and drink ale or heer, when they would not have done so if water could have been obtained. The object of the association has been fermed, I believe, through the spenyed of all the distinguished nobleman, Lord Shaftesbury, is now at the head of this, as, Indeed, of almost every benevolent effort to benefit the poor. It has offen been exceedingly difficult for the poor and liboring classes I oblinin a drink of pure wutor, and multitudes have thus been campelle Answer. Faithful king; may you live a thousand years. Wa come from Shanghul and helong to the great English nation. We have heard that your religion in Christian, like oar own. We worship, like you, the Heavenly Father. We have therefore come to make inquiry respecting this. It appears, then, that your hourselfs to country also professor, like na, to believe in Jeeus, the Saviour of the world. We are of the same religion and are breathern. Him fund he water that your benevolent device, and ought to be introduced into all our American cities without delny.

There Lade Drownen,—Three lads, brothers and are breathern. Him fund he water that if the water that your world have a superior and a second of the same religion and are breathern.

THREE LADS DROWNED.—Three lads, brothers named Schwarize, went from Covington on the Ohio river a few days ago in a skiff, nothing mere Saviour of the world. We are of the same religion, and are brethren. Ilien Fung's empire Is approaching its end; we have one-half of the mountains and rivere for the celestial dynasty. Having now only recently taken Socchow, we have not erected a church, otherwise you might enter it with ne and foin in worship.

The most of mankinil worship images of word and clay. The disciples of Jesus know that it is right culv to worship itod.

It is this wicked idolniny that we found prevailing here and in other cities. God has sent his Son Jesus to save the world from these their sins, and the younger brother of Jesus is our chief.

We desire nothing so much as first idolatry being heard of them until yesterday, when the solies of two, Jacob and Nathan, aged ninetee and twenty-onn years, were found at the foote Main street in the immediate vicinity of the Asian street in the immediate vicinity of its steamer Forest Queen, moored at that point. The body of the third brother has not yet been found too, for the lads lived with their widowed mother for Fifth street, near Main, and it is more that likely that had the third lad escaped he would have gone home with the intelligence of his brothers' fate.—Cin.
